4.0 Registration

DataNet OPC is installed in trial mode by default. When running in trial mode, the DataNet OPC product will only run for three days following the date of installation. To remove the trial mode limitations, the DataNet OPC product must be registered.

To register the software product, follow these instructions:

After installing DataNet OPC, open the DataNet OPC Server by going to:

Start button -> Programs -> DataNet OPC -> DataNet OPC Server

The DataNet OPC Server window will appear. In the Server window, go to:

A registration window will appear. In the registration window, copy the registration key by highlighting the Key, pressing the right mouse button and selecting Copy:
